“ I was so shocked to read about Delores's passing when the email came through at work. We were never on the same team but knew each other from working together as SME's. I enjoyed talking with her. She was very nice. She will be missed. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ I'll miss our long talks and silly conversations. I miss " I love ya " were family, your my sister. I'll miss our talks over new music and talks remembering the old . She was a strong woman that through heartaches and bad times never gave up and so cherished all the little things that so many of us take for granted sometimes .She was my teacher of life lessons, my friend , my big sis. She loved her family ,all of you beyond words. When I hear the ocean crashing on the beach or see dragonflies or butterflies or flowers blooming I'll think of her. Go rest high Delores your work on earth is done it is your time to fly. You gave so much to all of us . Sisters forever, all my love.
