“ My dear friend, Dena, you left us too soon! We had so many good times here at Good Samaritan Village, and as Red Hatters, you will always be our Queen Mother, even in heaven. May you be dancing once again with the Angels. Rest in Peace always.

“ Sis, I'll never forget the first time I heard your voice. You called and said you were looking for a friend to your mother. I knew instinctively you were my sister and called mom to come straight home from work and to expect your call. She was delirious with joy and so was I. I will always love you. Your little brother, Bill.

“ God bless you Dena. You always had a smile even when you lost at bingo which we played so often at Good Samaritan Village. I was in awe of you and your husband Frenchy. He is a wonderful man. He never missed making sure you were all set for bingo. You were very proud of your family, showing me pictures, etc. Bless you all, especially Frenchy. Sincerely Ann Shannon
