“ Thinking of you all today. May you find comfort in this poem by Khalid Gibran

For what is it to die but to stand naked in the wind and to melt into the sun.

And what is it to cease to breathe but to free the breath from its restless tides that it may rise and expand and seek God unencumbered?

Only when you drink from the river of silence shall you indeed sing. And when you have reached the mountain top then shall you begin to climb.

And the earth shall claim your limbs then shall you truly dance/

Love from all your English family. Cousin Anne xxx

“ For My Dear Father,

In such a short time, you have become one of my best friends. You shared so much wisdom, love, and experiences in your life. My mind knows that you are gone, but my heart will never accept it.

I MISS YOU SO MUCH!!

I will love, honor, and cherish you for the rest of my life.

*Love, your Daughter-in-law,
Dorothy*
