Later in life, she was diagnosed with Parkinson's Disease, which never seemed to slow her down or dampen her spirit.

Diane also had a love of gardening in her yard, reading books, watching the Yankees win, listening to classic rock music, watching sunsets and going to the beach. She enjoyed baking with her daughters and watching crime tv shows with her husband. Diane was very creative and loved to do crafts. She would bring her creativity when it was time to help her daughters' with school projects.

Diane was best known for her sarcastic sense of humor and strong spirit. She is survived by her loving husband, William Feerick and devoted dog, Zeus; children, Alicia (Steve) Wolstenholme and Kelly (Drew) Horner; sisters, Irene (Tom) Burns and Valerie (Glenn) Ryan; grandchildren, Mila, Amra, Isla, Kaia, Kira and Liam. “ Hello my name is Joey Ercolino. And I was thinking of my 1st girlfriend “for a very short period of time” because I was young and shy.

My shyness in this case was because I thought that Diane was way to pretty for me.

I met her later on in life Again in Carteret however I wasn't living a healthy life at the time. And out time together was not as wonderful as it could have and should have been.

I have no idea why I was thinking about her today. I guess it's because she was made a life long impression on me.

I'm pretty sure I knew her husband “but not well” and I just wanted to say I am very sorry for your loss. I also wanted to say hello to her “also very pretty “ sister Irene who was good friends with my girlfriend Rose Schelfe who I miss as well.

I'm sure God will enjoy your company just as we all did. Much love and respect.
