“ Here it is in September of the pandemic, and I was thinking strongly of Dinaz, so I looked online and found out that she had died. What a loss to the world. I knew her in a business relationship, but her warmth, humanity, and wisdom made it personal. All these years later, my home is dotted with beautiful little gifts from her...some pretty cups, a lovely perfume jar...but most of all, the gift of witnessing her hard work and determination.

Too late now to thank her for all those familiarization tours to Jamaica...for her warning about those Scotch Bonnet peppers...for forgiving me for all the times I miswrote her name.

Thank you, Dinaz. You inspired me to be my greatest possible self, in business and in life.

“ Dinaz Boga Kaprielian introduced me to stuffed tomatoes, Shabu Shabu and curried lobster; she taught me to always bring a pen and paper to a meeting; that work expands to the time on hand and for all his faults, Walter Kaprielian was most talented art director on the planet. She knew the importance of family, friends and fresh flowers to make almost everything better. She cared deeply, like the way she did for her mom Rati Boga, and mine too. Dinaz gave me my start and left me with a circle of relationships and memories that I hold dear. I hope I said thank you. I will miss you, Cathy

“ The world had a gift in Dinaz Boga Kaprielian - a beautiful heart, a wonderful mind, a special spirit; we will miss her but maybe she has gone to join Walter, Maggie, Prince, Minnie and the parents she loved so much. A Dieu dear Dinaz.
