“ I have known Dolores my entire life. She was dear and neighbor to my grandparents and my parents back in South Heights. I was raised with and open door to our house, and Dolores coming to have coffee at our kitchen table on a very regular basis. She was a constant in my life and it was in our car that Dolores first came to Florida at the insistence of my dad, when she was diagnosed with cancer. My parents took care of her and nursed her in the sunshine of Florida. After her healing, she and Otto made the decision to move to Florida and bought the house in Seminole. Her nut rolls are famous in my family. Even in her later years, she brought nut rolls at Christmas. I now have her recipes and her nut roll pans. That makes me very happy. It was a very sad day when Larry passed and I'm not sure that Dolores ever recovered from that. I wish peace to the family and grace and God's richest blessings on Dolores as she enters the kingdom of her savior which she praised without end. I will miss you to Dolores.❤️

“ What a joy it was to know Otto and Dolores Hughes along life's journey! They both were strong pillars at Glad Tidings. What a pleasure to worship with them and travel with Dolores on missions trips. She laughed hard, worked hard, loved hard and worshipped hard. How heaven must be rejoicing with her!
