“ Donna, our thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family at the loss of your dad. When we first moved in to the Lake Bell neighborhood, he was riding his bicycle daily and always offered a friendly greeting. As he moved to a motorized scooter our dogs were often scared and barked at it, but we tried to exchange a friendly conversation when we could. I pray he is at peace and reunited with his beloved wife, and that the memories and love you shared carry you through these difficult times.
