“ I met a wonderful couple about 12 years ago. Never knowing the impact they would make on my life. They have become my adopted parents whom I call Mom and Dad. They have indeed made an impact on my life. My dad was Don Wilcox. Who was a very special man. He was a very silent man with few words. He has the ability to capture your heart with his wisdom and wise advice that lives long in your heart. He is a true Christian and a true follower of Christ. He has a beautiful smile that makes a room shine like a light in a room. What an impact this man I called Dad made in my life. Those that know him would agree with that. He certainly has made an impact on me and many others. I seem to be grasping for words of why we had to loose him but then I realized we did not loose him he has just gone home to be with our lord and someday I hope to see him again God willing . For you dad I will heed your advise and respect my husband more.

“Rodger and I got to know Margaret and Don through church and Sunday School. He was a special man who always had that smile on his face that lite up the room. We are in prayer for the family. I pray that God will give you the strengthen that you need daily to get through this. I have full confidence that Don is at peace and with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

“Sometimes in life God sends someone extra special into your life that you will remember forever. Someone who touches you with a smile. I am so thankful I got to know and love Don. He is that special someone God sent to me. I will miss him and I will miss that funny side of him many of us got to meet. The Bible says this world is not our final home. Our true home is in Heaven and I KNOW that is where Don lives now and is waiting for all of us who know the Lord as our Savior. Don fell asleep one day but he woke up in Heaven. He is experiencing joy we can't begin to imagine. What a day, glorious day that will be!

I pray for Don's family. Margaret, you are so precious to me. May the Lord give you strength for today, hope for tomorrow and comfort in knowing that even though you have said good-by for now, God has said "Welcome home Don, my son," forever.

*Love you all.

“ We got to know Don and Margaret the last few years in Sunday School and grew to love them like family. He will be missed so much. He is in the arms of Jesus now and may our love help Margaret during her time of sadness and loss.
