“ Donna and I had a lot of fun together when we were kids. One of my most cherished memories is when her dad hitched a horse to a wagon and we had a gallon of water and a salt shaker and rode through their Apple Orchard eating green apples and singing as we went. What a fun time!!! The Wells family lived very close to my grandparents, George (Joker) and Ella Jahraus. It was a matter of going through a gate, past the garden and through another gate and we could play together. What fun we had doing the simple things that kids did back then.

Donna was in my husband's class at LaGrove High School. As teenagers we still had good times together. Many, many fond memories...some that I wish I could experience again.

We send our sympathy to all of Donna's family.

“ Donna, I will miss our twice a year talks. Thank you for being a great friend and supporter. You and Bob were truly an inspiration to me and wonderful role models. I value all the words of wisdom you have shared with me over the years.
