“Dora and I were next door neighbors in Conway. We were both single mothers and so we helped and supported each other. Every weekend we would work in the yard, and the first time we met was when Dora offered me “a cold one” after a long hot day of mowing and weeding.

I had a dog named Yogi and Dora always had pets of her own. I knew she was a considerate neighbor when she confessed years after the fact that Yogi strolled in during moving day, lifted his leg, and peed on the fireplace.

Dora and I both had daughters and had a lot of teenage drama between the two. Dora walked over one night with all the phone receivers from the phones in her house (this was before cell phones), and I remember adding mine to the pile and ending up with 10 phone receivers in my trunk. Between boys, sneaking out and other shenanigans we had a lot to deal with, but they both grew up to be successful women with families of their own.

During this time, Jeff her beloved soul mate, came along and they had a beautiful wedding that my son had the honor of being a part of as ring bearer.

Between the two houses we had lots of fun parties, and actually watched the Tampa Bay Buccaneers win a super bowl!!

Dora and Jeff moved out, and I remarried and moved on, but I missed our relationship as neighbors and friends.

Dora was always protective of those that she was close to. I once had an abusive boyfriend and had to call 911 one night. Dora came over and stayed with me until the police showed up. Later after the boyfriend and police had gone, Dora lifted her shirt and showed me the gun she was packin'. I knew Dora always had my back!

I feel for Jeff, Sheena, Ricky, Brielle, Maria, Sylvia, and all that knew and loved her. She will be greatly missed.

“ Ms. Dora was the sweetest person I have ever encountered on this earth. She instantly took me under her wing and I became her adopted granddaughter and she became my Mexican grandma that was our thing. The grilled chicken in the mornings and tuna with lays chips and salsa at work. The jokes and support over the years our talks I'll miss it all she truly was a gem and I miss her. Until we meet again Ms.Dora 🥹

Miss Dora was a very special person. She would always share her Pearl's of wisdom without even knowing it. She gave you her all. Words are not enough to describe Ms. DORA. She was a force that I wish more people would show. She did the right thing at the right time. Jeff ,Sheena and family this is a great loss but I know that Dora would want you to carry on.
