Tribute Wall

“ As the Christmas season is upon us, I find myself thinking so strongly about you and missing you terribly. Christmas should have been part of your name. You went to such trouble to make our Christmas so special, Ma, and we miss everything about you so much. So, if there is a Christmas in Heaven, I know you're right in there directing everything so it will be just perfect. Love and miss you more than I could ever put into word. Bruce and Rebecca

“ We are what our parents taught us to be through their lives every day. Even though Tom and I never had the opportunity to meet your mother, I know your mother was an exceptional person because you are such an exceptional person yourself. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. If you need anything at all please let us know. May God walk by your side and grant you and your family peace during this time.
