“ I will miss Dot so much. When I was going through things I would call her for advice and whether I wanted to hear her answer or not that's what I got. She wasn't afraid to hurt my feelings but she also wasn't afraid to Love me even if everyone thought she shouldn't. I was young when I first met her and she really didn't except me in the beginning but our friendship built through out the years. She really loved her family and friends. She was not an in between person she either liked you or she didn't. She will be missed by so many. I'm so sorry for your loss.

With all my love,

“Dottie Miller was my friend.

I have worked with her, I have worked for her but most of all she was my friend. We spent hours sharing stories of our families and our lives and through those conversations I learned that Dottie Miller packed a lot in her 74 years. She had many careers and many skills. Starting as a bookkeeper for her fathers business, she learned skills that proved useful in her own businesses. She loved design and fashion and had her own window treatment business for over 35 years. At one point Dottie had her own store and workroom that she loved but when it was time to close it she pivoted her business and worked out of her home. She kept going, Dottie was resilient and a survivor.

Probably the one trait Dottie possessed that got her through was her resilience. She learned it as a very young child. She had many joyous memories of her childhood but it wasn't perfect. Those experiences taught her to be resilient, to stand up for herself and to handle adversity. It was her resilience that helped her raise her children, to work hard and keep going.

And Dottie indeed worked hard, not just for herself but for her children. She was strong, fiercely independent and wildly protective of her children. At times her protectiveness could seem harsh, Miley Cyrus might say she “came in like a wrecking ball” but that was just her way.

At this time of reflection and forgiveness may Dottie be remembered for the love she had for those she leaves behind, for her children, her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Her grandchildren and great grandchildren were her source of joy. Dottie spoke about each and everyone of them with pride and joy. She cherished every moment she had with them. Know that she will miss each and everyone of you.

I know I miss her very much and am grateful she was part of my world.

💕💕 forever in our hearts

“ Dorothy was a great friend of mine though we never met in person. We met online playing games on Pogo and shared many happy times. Dorothy confided in me about her cancer and I prayed many times for her. We have been in Colorado for some time and we tried to stay in contact. She was a beautiful person....and great friend and will be missed by me. Blessings on all the family.

“ Daryl & I send our thoughts and prayers to Dottie's family. We had the honor of working with her the past several years by doing her window treatments. She was always so easy to work with and always gave us a good laugh anytime we spoke. We just spoke to her a few weeks ago & she was still cracking jokes. Heaven gained a beautiful angel. We will miss working with her. God bless her family.

“ My deepest sympathy to all of you, Dottie's Children & Grandkids...Great Grandchildren too. She truly loved you all so much, you were her life. She often said that she could never leave Sanford, because she could never leave you. You were lucky to have a Mom that loved you all so much. God Bless you Dottie Girl, you were my buddy & I will miss you.

Dearest Shannon and family again I'm so sorry for loss! Dotti loved all of you so very much! She was such a proud mom and grandma! I've known her since I was a little girl with me and Shannon went to middle school! It was a pleasure for the last 13+ years being her insurance agent and we have shared many stories about each other's lives and I will always cherish them! I will miss our laughs and I will miss her stubbornness! :-) She was a very strong woman I spoke to her a couple weeks before she passed and she told me she was was going to fight! She said she has good days and bad days she always asked me about my family and how my mom was doing all the way till our last conversation! I will miss her very much and I'm sending you prayers and love to you all! May you rest in peace Dottie and till we meet again my dear friend! 🙏💪🤔❤️
