

Dwight C. Brunoehler

October 25, 1950 - October 4, 2018

Dwight C. Brunoehler of Winter Park, FL, passed away Thursday, October 4, 2018 at the age of 67. Born October 25, 1950, in Muncie, Indiana, he was the son of the late Carl J. Brunoehler, M.D. and Evangeline Buckley, RN.

Dwight was the CEO of Eurotrade Inc operating out of San Juan, Puerto Rico. He led a team working with International Banks and Traders coordinating Private Placement Programs, Buy and Sell programs for Bank Guarantees, Stand By Letters of Credit, and Medium Term Notes. The company also deals in commodities with an emphasis on gas and oil products.

Previously, Dwight held the positions of Chief Executive Officer and member of the Board of Directors for Biostem US Corporation until March, 2013. Prior to that, he served as an advisor and held executive roles with several international companies operating in the biotech field.

Dwight founded Cryobanks International in 1993 and served as its President and CEO until 2008. He positioned Cryobanks to become one of the world's largest banks for donated unrelated umbilical cord blood. He developed partnerships between Cryobanks International and physicians and hospitals worldwide to further advance the usage of cord blood stem cells for transplant and non-controversial life enhancing research. He assisted numerous state legislators in drafting laws where expectant mothers were educated and informed of the benefits of cord blood donation. He was instrumental in drafting the first state cord blood awareness legislation of its kind in Illinois and Wisconsin.

Dwight coordinated numerous research and development partnerships to develop therapeutic benefits of cord blood stem cells. He was a past member of The Cord Blood Work Group and the Finance Sub-Committees of the World Marrow Donor Association. He was an active member of the American Society of Hematology and a founding member of the International Cord Blood Society.

Dwight lectured in numerous hospitals and universities throughout the world on cord blood donation. He engineered a worldwide network of licensed facilities to grow the inventory and availability of cord blood, where the first three locations opened in: Athens, Greece, New Delhi, India and Bangkok, Thailand. The Athens location became the first facility in Europe to be accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks.

Prior to his work at Cryobanks International, Dwight participated in a wide variety of successful ventures. He owned and operated many different businesses and held executive level positions in marketing, public relations and new product development capacities in both established and start-up companies, including seven years with the Bell System.

Among his many recognition awards are the March of Dimes Corporate Volunteer of The Year Award, and the Florida Public Relations Association Golden Image Award of Distinction for his work in promoting corporate volunteerism nationwide.

Dwight attended Croydon Hall Academy after which he served in the United States Army, in Germany. He was a graduate of the University of Central Florida, and in 2007 was honored to be the keynote speaker at the commencement celebration for advanced degrees in the health sciences sector.

Dwight is survived by his two daughters, SueAnn Rand (Joe), and Carey Jackson, 7 grandchildren, brother, John Brunoehler and sister, Trinita Brunoehler.

A Celebration of Life will be held in his honor in November.

“ Dwight was a member of the Bishop Moore class of 1968, we are all saddened by his passing. I talked with Dwight and was aware of his journey. Some of the classmates had this to say when learning of his passing.

Julie Pope Leone

Diane Salvage Warner Deepest condolences to the family and friends.

Mike Robinson, Dwight was a hoot. RIP old boy.

Mary Anne Estrich, God Bless You, Dwight. Thanks for all of the cinnamon toothpicks in 7th and 8th grade at SMM. Mary Anne Herron Estrich

Michael Cavallere, Oh my...I am sorry to hear this. Rest In Peace OL' friend.

Sally Merrill Pickering, Rest in comfort and peace. Dwight was quite instrumental in directing me to information and research related to my hereditary blindness and innovative trials and research in upcoming advancements. He was very enlightened and passionate regarding his medical profession.

Mirta Wallace, Dwight was a very caring and giving individual. He was passionate about his research of stem cells and the benefits this treatment would bring to many. You are now free of pain and in peace and comfort. Grateful for all the good times we had together. You will be missed my friend. 💜

Sandy Leete, I am so sorry to hear this...Rest in Peace. Manage

Janice Morgan, Shoot Dwight! You will be sorely missed. But we will see you again. Praying for your familys peace and comfort in their loss.

“ I first met Dwight when he and I served in the Army at Ft Jackson SC. He was just entering military service and I was close to be discharged. We became friends when he served in the same company in which he'd just had basic training. We also lived in the same barracks and shared a room. I was discharged from the military in mid July, but we continued to correspond. Over the next several months he was assigned duty in Germany and we lost touch. By browsing the internet I found copious amounts of info about him about three years ago and wrote him a letter. He emailed me back saying he got the letter and was ready to put it in the round file then noticed the name and thought he knew me. Numerous emails were exchanged afterward. I had adopted a Chi pup last year and asked if he minded I named it Bruno (his nickname in the Army). He said that would be great and he'd been called much worse in his life. Last week I send a birthday card to him for his birthday tomorrow (10/25/18). It came back yesterday (10/23/18). I then hit the internet to browse for a possible updated address and found his obituary. I am shocked. I send my best to his family and friends. I mourn with you.

“ Dwight, AND TO THE FAMILY AND FRIENDS, he will be missed, by those who knew him. He was a wild man, and the greatest times in our lives was shared together, we loved to drink Chevis Regal and talk about the ladies, we spent every Christmas eve together and attended midnight mass to wash away our sins, which were many.;in search of career success our lives separated but never our hearts.. I feel a special time was when he knew who was going to transition to the next place, and we discussed the love of each other.. I will always love Dwight and look forward to seeing him at the next level..God Bless my friend..jeff

“ My Deepest Sympathy goes out to the entire Brunoehler Family. I worked with Dwight way back in the late 70's early 80's. We were young and beginning our careers in the Bell system. As years past I had lost contact with Dwight but always knew he was pioneering some new creative venture somewhere. I learned a lot from Dwight back when we worked together at Bell and can honestly say that I don't know if I would be where I am today had it not been for Dwight. I was very saddened to hear of his passing at such a young age and my heart goes out to those close to him.

“ Dear John, Trina, and all family members, please accept my deepest sympathies. Will always remember our shared times as next door neighbors on Laurel Road. Dwight's creative mind was active then and was put to good use in the ensuing years! His stellar accomplishments would have made Eve and Carl very proud as they reflect upon his exceptional parents. Will always remember Coaching John in the Gra-Y program and teaching John at Trinity Prep. God bless all and stay safe. All the best, Randy Moore, neighbor, friend, Coach, Teacher.
