We want look for anyone to feel this void in our life's we'll let our memories do that. I want to say thank you for sharing your brother. I remember the first real day we spent together, it was On Mom and Papa's wedding day. We spent the day at the mall. I got the hives because I was so filled with excitement, and missed the party. 😊

I want to let you know Papa has been the best father a girl could ever have. My life is filled with great memories of him combing my hair, teaching me math, letting me eat or try anything I wanted and playing cards on the back porch with you, Aunt Brenda, Uncle Bernard, Uncle Gregory and JB.

Papa has continued to show me unwavering support and love all through my adulthood. I have always been given great advice and praise from him right down to my last few days with him in the hospital this past February. Papa also gave me the greatest gift ever. Papa unselfishly befriended my biological Father just as he has done to him, and their friendship went on way after I was grown and out the picture. I could call for Papa and they could be found together, up until most recently eating ginger snaps together. I have always told people I was blessed with two Dads. This is more than any one girl should get.

Papa was a rare gem and can never be replaced or forgotten. I am so thankful for having him in my life as a Father and a Grandfather to my daughters. I love you Papa rest in peace, you are forever my special gem. I hope heaven has pig ear sandwiches so you can eat all you want. 🐷

"I choose gentleness... Nothing is won by force. I choose to be gentle. If I raise my voice may it be only in praise. If I clench my fist, may it be only in prayer. If I make a demand, may it be only of myself. "

— Max Lucado

Wow, it's been nearly 20 years since I've seen Earl and Elise. What I remember having been raised in Spring Oaks is something that I'm sure never changed and that's Earl's kind heart, his calm demeanor and his love for his family. That can never be replaced. Otis, Allison and Alexander Cliatt II
