“ Eddie, my friend and my brother in the Lord, what can I say in these few words. The trumpet sounded for you today. God sent his Angels to sweep you away to a land of peace and love for ever more.

You will be feasting from that tree of life and drinking from that river that will never run dry. You will be wearing your robe and crown and I doubt you will be sitting down. You will be praising the king of kings and the lord of lords until we meet again on the other shore.
