My aunt D will be greatly missed. We were not able to see each regularly, but communicated by telephone frequently. I always enjoyed our conversations as we would talk about JESUS and express our relationship with HIM. The opportunity to share JESUS CHRIST with aunt D was the best thing we had between us.

I will never forget her peculiar laugh when we shared jokes and her concern for me when I was ill. She really became my adopted mother after my own precious mother went home to be with the LORD.

Aunt D was kind, gentle, loving, caring and most definitely a PROVERBS 31 woman. A woman faithful to her husband, loving and caring to her children and a genuine friend.

May your beautiful soul Rest In Peace aunt D and see you in ETERNITY.💜

Losing a mother doesn't happen in a moment. It takes years to appreciate the impact of what's gone. Rest In Peace Aunt Darling.
