*Dear Cheryl and family,
Although, I do not know Edme Vanier it seems like she was a wonderful mother and I am very sorry for your loss. Just as a consoling thought, Jesus' words in John 5:28, 29 often have helped me overcome the death of a loved one. That's why I'm sharing this promise: "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment." I hope these can come as some comfort to you during this time.*
