

Edward F. "Eddie" Sylvia IV

January 1, 2020

Edward Francis Sylvia "Eddie" 53 of St. Petersburg, Fl. passed away on Thursday, March 26, 2020. He was a respected marketing executive. He was a brand Ambassador at Traeger Wood Fire Grills and previously the marketing director of the Tampa Bay Rowdies. Eddie is survived by his loving wife, Melissa; daughters: Jackie, Jessica and his son, Victor; his brother: Michael; sisters: Michele, Katie and Allie; mother: Janice Dawson and her husband, David Dawson; his father: William Edwards. He will be deeply missed by his friends and family. The family will be having a private viewing Thursday, April 2 from 11 am until 12 noon. Because we want to afford the family their time with Eddie, the funeral home will be strictly enforcing the Resolution No. 20-20 "Covid-19-Safe At Home" order. There will be a graveside service to follow at Calvary Catholic Cemetery at 12:30, again the order will once again be strictly enforced.

“ Marvin Heesacker posted a condolence Eddie was a ball of fire! I had the privilege of working with him at Traeger Grills. He was always looking for a way to get better. He was constantly striving to be great! He once told me “Marv, you don’t know this yet, but I WILL be one of the best!” And to know surprise, he was well on his way there! Spread that Traeger love upstairs my friend! So much love and respect!

“ Wyatt Erwin uploaded photo(s) Thank you Eddie, for being you. For being the best as I saw on our last trip. I miss our conversations, and I will miss you buddy. The man upstairs must’ve needed you more up there than here. God Bless you and your family. I love you brother.

“ John Aitchison posted a condolence I worked with Eddie. He was strong willed and opinionated. I say this with much love to him. He was a very hard worker and was great at selling Traeger Grills. He had a magic about him and was always trying to better his craft. He loved his family, he talked about Melissa all the time. After working with Eddie the one time, I really had no intention of keeping in touch with him. He, on the other hand, kept in touch with me and I was surprised to find that I had grown to like him and enjoyed his phone calls. I don't have many work friends, but I can count him among the few I have. I am very sorry that he isn't with us any more. I feel his loss. Melissa, may you be blessed with comfort, peace and eventual healing.
