“ They say there is a reason, they say that time will heal but neither time nor reason can change the way I feel. For no one knows the headache that lies behind our smiles, no one know how many times we have broken down and cry. We want to tell you something so there won't be no doubt. You are so wonderful Edward to think of and so hard to be without 😞

I was very young, but I remember when Palmer had joined Navy and I asked him if he could bring me a Popeye the sailor man hat and when he graduated from basic and came home he surely surprised me with one authentic sailor cap. I always cherish that memory that he thought of me. I no have that cap but Palmers memory will always live on...My 1st cousin I love you always ❤️
