

Edward P Mayak

January 8, 2022

Ed was born in St. Petersburg and lived here all his life. He attended St. Jude Catholic school, Bishop Barry High School and SPJC.

By profession, he was an electronics technician who worked for JC Penney's, RCA, GE and was co-owner of Signal TV and Electronics.

Following retirement, he enjoyed working at Ace Hardware.

His hobbies included fishing, watching his favorite teams, the Pittsburgh Steelers, Rays and the Bucs on TV and being an avid fan and sponsor of both Dan and Rob Partelo at Sunshine Speedway.

Everywhere he went, he was most known for creating friendships. He loved meeting people and was always genuine in his caring about who you were.

He was a kind and loving husband to Bonnie, his wife of 47 years, and a proud father to David. He spent many years enjoying youth soccer with his son and grandsons, Jacob, Andrew and Matthew who were the light of his life.

Life was not easy for Ed. He was born with heart deformities and underwent many surgeries throughout childhood and adult life. He never felt sorry for himself and was always upbeat, hopeful and grateful for all the dedicated doctors and healthcare workers who attended to him.

We are thankful to Our Father in heaven who graced Ed with 70 joyous years and we have all been blessed to have known him.

He is survived by his wife, Bonnie; son, David and wife Tanya; mother, Ferne; brother, Ray and wife Michele. Three grandchildren, Jacob, Andrew and Matthew. Two nieces, Meredith and husband Charlie; Brittany and husband James; grand-niece Olivia and grandnephew, Aiden.

Visitation will be at the funeral home on Thursday, January 13 from 5-7 pm. A memorial mass will be at St. Paul's Catholic church on Saturday, January 15 at 9:30 am.

“ Joe Ems lit a candle Ed.... I'll miss our backyard baseball games against Steve and Ray. I'll miss Christmas trains and raiding Grandmas Gobs. You and I were the best at it. But most of all .... I'll miss you. You were the best cousin and friend a man could ever want. I'll see you soon in heaven. Joe “ Melissa Ems lit a candle Eddie, you were one of the kindest and most genuine people in my life. You always had a compassionate but mischievous smile that was so infectious. You always genuinely cared about me and what I was up to. I am a better person for knowing you! Thank you for being a positive influence to me. You deserve the eternal peace and happiness you no doubt have.

“ Tom Heusinger (Heuy) posted a condolence Just received an email about Eddie from my High School friend and college roommate Bill Tschiderer, Eddie as I knew him at Bishop Barry had the coolest car. He had a 1948 Plymouth I think and I had a 1949.but Eddie's car was the best. We talked a lot in the day about our cars and had some good times with our 4 years at Bishop Barry.. I remembered that Eddie had some heart issues in High School and I remembered his Dad was an Auto Mechanic I believe. Always someone you got along with in High School. Sorry to hear the news of Eddie's passing and I send my prayers to his Family.

“ Bill Tschiderer lit a candle So many memories we have shared over the years from grade school to high school to working with your son David at Long John Silver's. I remember like yesterday the gang getting together at you parents' house playing football in the field. You brought joy to all of us who knew you!!
God bless you my friend. Rest in peace.
May Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let Your perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen.
Condolences to your loving family. Know that you all are in my thoughts and prayers.

“Lynne Gingras lit a candle We sure will miss Eduardo, as we always called him. Playing cards, eating ice cream and meeting at the casino to become millionaires and sharing a meal after we all hit it big. Roger will just plain miss his friend Eduardo and Lynne will miss the phone greeting they gave each other, the long phone conversations about our tickers, football, Nascar, laughing at the game show network and whatever else we could discuss. Rest in Peace dear friend. Love Lynne and Roger Gingras
