

Edward Meixsell

April 17, 1929 - November 23, 2025

Edward Meixsell passed away peacefully on November 23, 2025, in Longwood, Florida. A visionary real estate developer who worked well into his 90s, Ed lived a life defined by family devotion, determination, and unwavering principles.

He is survived by his children Craig, Tracey, and Scott; nine grandchildren; and twenty-two great-grandchildren who will carry on his legacy. Ed was preceded in death by his son Dennis in 1992 and was blessed with 66 wonderful years of marriage to his beloved wife "Jeanie," who passed away in 2014.

His business acumen was matched only by his personal warmth. He was always present when it truly mattered, listening intently, offering thoughtful advice, and standing firmly behind his loved ones.

Ed Meixsell's legacy lives on through his extensive family and the countless lives he touched with his generosity, work ethic, and unwavering support. He will be deeply missed but fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

We love you so much and will always carry your memory in our hearts!

“ Ed was truly one of a kind. He didn't have a long formal education, but was a great student of how things work. He put that practical education to very good use. I worked with him as a lawyer for 20 years. Unlike many clients, he knew what he wanted, he had a pretty good idea of how to get what he wanted and by and large achieved whatever goal he had, in litigation or in transactions,occasionally with some gnashing of teeth...but never profane. He had a very strong understanding of value... how to preserve it and how to increase it. He was kind, generous and thoughtful particularly with his family. He talked to me often about each one of his kids and grandkids. He was almost always late to appointments and almost always questioned the bill, but he did appreciate what we did for him. He was honest. He was a good man. He missed Jean terribly when she passed. We will miss him.

“ I had the privilege of working with Ed Meixsell for many years, and I will always remember his fortitude, work ethic and determination. His love for his work was only second to his devotion and love for his wife, Jean. It was an honor to support them, and I truly admired the way they approached life together. His dedication to work and business was admirable.

My heartfelt condolences go out to the entire family during this difficult time. Wishing you comfort and peace as you celebrate the life and legacy of such a remarkable person.
