

Eleanor Tombros

April 12, 1922 - August 31, 2011

Tombros, Eleanor Mae, 89, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, August 31, with both her sons and their wives by her bedside. Eleanor was born April 12, 1922 in Rock Hill, South Carolina but spent most of her childhood in Ansted, West Virginia until she relocated to New Jersey during World War II. There, she met her husband Epomonodos and settled in Vineland, New Jersey until they relocated to Florida in 1980 after her husband's retirement. Eleanor was an Administrative Assistant for the Verteran's Administration of the State of New Jersey and was very active in her community, most notably as a PTSA President where she brought The Harlem Globetrotters to Vineland for a fundraiser. The loves of her life though, were her husband Fred of 65 years and her two sons Frederick & his wife Ann, both career educators, live in Longwood, Florida and have three daughters, two of which are married and three grandchildren. Theodore, the owner of the Ted Tombros Insurance Agency and his wife Janet, a local artist, live in Apopka and have a daughter, two step-children and one grandson. A memorial service will be held on Thursday September 8 at Annuciation Catholic Church on Montgomery Road in Longwood at 10:00 AM. Reception information will be provided at the service.

Arrangements are entrusted to DeGusipe Funeral Home & Crematory, 9001 N. Orlando Avenue, Maitland, Florida 32751, 407-695-CARE (2273).

“ We were so sorry to hear of your Mother's passing and our thoughts are with you. In lieu of flowers we decided to send a donation to the Alzheimer's Foundation so they may help others with this terrible disease. She and your Dad can now be at peace together.
Sincerely, The Jersey Tombros'
