“ Dear Elin,
You were my good friend's mom and companion. From the moment we found we were non-cheese eaters we knew we were kindred spirits. In a world full of cheese eaters, we understood each other. It was always easy to laugh with you. I loved you like my own mom. Your service was beautiful, the music wonderful but you will be greatly missed.
Every time I see a orchid or a squirrel I will smile and think of you.
Love, Wanda

“ Carol and family - our deepest condolences on the loss of your dear mother. It's so nice to see a recent photo - just the way I remember Mrs Treadway many years ago. It seems only a short time past that our parents were sharing fun times through their activities at Prince of Peace. May you find peace and comfort in the days ahead.

“ My sympathies to the Treadway family as they grieve the loss of their mother, our "Mrs. Treadway". My friend Carol has been a devoted daughter to her devoted mother for all the long years I have had the privilege of knowing them. My family, the Berardi's, send their prayers and thoughts to all.
