“ Ma, I love you and I miss you, as I will always. You have always been my strength and inspiration. You are my hero. If you had a fault it was caring too much for others and being too giving. I just hope that I make you proud with my life. I know you haven't always agreed with my choices but you did always accept them. You have touched so many people with your words and kind heart. You were truly one of a kind. Everyone whose life you touched was blessed. I know you are in a better place now. Your mom and dad and Chuck welcomed you with open arms. That doesn't make it easier for those of us that love and miss you more than anything but we know you are watching over us. My heart is truly broken, but you gave me that strength to carry on. We will all get through this because we all have part of you with us. You are the strongest most beautiful woman I have ever known. I will do my best to live my life as you would have wanted. You will forever be a part of us all. I love you Ma. I will always miss you. I can't thank God enough that I had such a wonderful person for my mother as you.##imported-begin##Katy Zipperer##imported-end##

“ Aunt Liz was everything a person could be. She was a mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, friend, and with in them all she was beautiful. Although she left too soon she left here with the memory of a saint. She had a heart of gold... Our family feels a piece missing with her lose, but we know she is in a far more beautiful place where everyday is a day for a peice of her to live in a perfect way. She may not be here with us now but she will always be in our thoughts, hearts, and memories. I love you Aunt Elizabeth. You were and will always be a beautiful woman. You will be missed. You will always be loved.

Love always,
