“ To the family of Elizabeth Siner, I had the honor of taking of Elizabeth at the hospital shortly before her passing. I was her nurse Donna. I would like to say what a joy she was to me, and how lucky it was for me to care for her. You should be proud and thankful for her longevity of life. Even with her age she still managed to make new friends. The last conversation we had was her inviting me over to her house. A memory that I will cherish always. Sorry for your loss.
