“ Going to miss when I visited I would always joked with her and watching her laugh. The challenges she faced she would still have a smile, strong woman. She was loved.

“ Beautiful, warm and compassionate. Rain or sunshine she always welcome me with a wide and loving smile. It was my blessing as her neighbor to be blessed with her caring and gentle ways. Her grandsons were her pride and joy. I will miss our conversations on growing flowers, cooking and family values. I am missing you and praying you will have a warm welcome when you reach home. I will always cherish the beautiful memories that I have with you. Fly grandma fly to your eternal rest

“ I remember when Emilia met my uncle in Chicago. Love began instantly and continued throughout their marriage. Emilia and my mom were always good friends. I can still remember the laughter shared by both. Her love of family was apparent in her dedication, devotion and strength. Her family/my family will be in my thoughts & heart. Millie

I remember that on a visit to Puerto Rico I took her to a restaurant where she could see the sunset in the sea. He enjoyed watching her and told me that it was one of the most beautiful things she had ever seen. Rest in peace Aunt Gigi.
