“ Emma Faith...you are the strongest person I have ever met, and also the most beautiful. You made me an Aunt and for that I am truly grateful. I love you so very much and miss you every single day. While your life may have been short, your impact on the world is huge. I know you're up in heaven smiling down on us and laughing and dancing at the feet of Jesus. I am honored to have been your Aunt. I love you...Tiffany

“ Dearest little Emma... what a rollercoaster ride we've been through over the last few months.... you made us very sad sometimes but you certainly made us smile alot. You were soo small yet what a little warrior...strong and determined. But God has other plans for you...plans that we just cannot understand. I want you to know, little Angel that you will not be forgotten, from those adorable chubby cheeks to those beautifully pedicured toe nails. May God cradle you in His arms and may He give your lovely parents strength & inner peace. PS. I dont have to tell you this cause you saw it everyday, but I'll say it anyway... your parents were amazing, caring, dedicated, willing to go all the way for you... they were also warriors. God chose excellent parents for you and we will pray for them, cause this wont be easy for them or for anyone who got the chance to meet you. Sending you a big kiss for each chubby cheek.. Thank You for being soooo willing to work with me and enjoying those massages. God Bless you little Angel.... Love always Mary - Lymphedema Therapist @ FH South.

“ Our heartfelt condolences to the family. When someone special falls asleep in death, it is very hard to let go of the fact that they are no longer with us. We will miss holding them in our arms again and hear their laughter or see their smiles again. Our God, Jehovah, offers a future hope for our loved ones, which will help ease our feelings of loss today. May the coming days bring you comfort and peace (Isaiah 26:19).
