

Emma Marie Marques

June 4, 2009 - February 3, 2016

Our beloved 6 year old, Emma Marie Marques entered heaven on February 3rd 2015. Emma was born on June 4th, 2009. She endured a brave and courageous 22 month long battle with DIPG, an inoperable form of pediatric brain cancer.

Emma leaves behind her parents Donna Marie Marques and George Manuel Marques and her 8 year old brother Anthony Patrick Marques, including a large loving family extending throughout Canada, Ireland and Portugal. She was a student of Annunciation Catholic Academy. In her short 6 years of life, Emma lived and loved life to the fullest, touching so many lives. She loved to dance, do arts and crafts, American girl, Minnie, pretend she was a princess, beach trips, travel, doing it all while always have a smile on her face.

She loved to express herself through her art. Emma left behind a legacy with her book, entitled 'Emma the Brave', written and illustrated by her. We will find peace in her words "Whenever you are hurting and feel like you're falling apart, think of Emma the Brave - She's there in your heart". Forever she will live through us, in our hearts.

In lieu of flowers, Emma would have loved donations to be made in her honor to much needed DIPG research to continue to fight the stinky tumor: www.thecurestartsnow.org/heroes/200/.

Funeral services will be held at Annunciation Catholic Church, Altamonte Springs, Monday February 8th, 2016 at 10:00am.

There will be a viewing at DeGusipe Funeral Home & Crematory (Maitland Chapel), 9001 N Orlando Ave., Maitland, Sunday February 7th, 2016 from 3:00pm – 7:00pm.

“ *Have you ever held a firefly in the palm of your hand?
It's a little lovebug waiting to shine.
Let it fly away and it glows with the beat of your heart.
Looking out into the darkness dancing lights....
So beautiful ~magical & universal.
An unconditional love shared by all and given by one little warm sweet light.*

“ George, Donna, Anthony and family,

I wanted to take the time to let you know that I asked my father to pray for your family in this time of sorrow. He then sent a prayer chain on, and I just now received a response from a Sister at The Norbertine Canonesses of the Bethlehem Priory of St. Joseph. The entire convent has Emma, as well as your family in their prayers. Here is what she wrote to me:

May the grace and peace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you...

Laura, please know that your dear father shared with us your prayer request, letting us know that Our Lord has just called George and Donna's precious little child, Emma, home, and on behalf of Mother and all the Sisters, could you kindly please convey to them and their son, Anthony, our prayerful and heartfelt condolences. How consoled they must be to have a little saint in heaven, interceding for them and bringing her dear family many graces. Blessed John Henry Newman once confided to a grieving friend that he believed God takes those who are most dear to us only in order to strengthen our desire to find them again with Him forever, because He loves us too much to be without us, drawing us in so many ways to look to things above, to our eternal and true home. We also think of the Little Flower, who attributed some of the greatest graces of her life to the Heavenly intercession of her older brothers and sisters whom she never knew in this life because they had died soon after their baptism.

We will be especially united with George, Donna, Anthony, and all Emma's family and loved ones in prayer at this time. As we commemorate Our Lady of Lourdes today, may she surround all of us, her spiritual children, with her tender consolation, healing, and peaceful abandonment to the Heavenly Father's plan, and may she bring the beloved soul of Emma to rest peacefully in the eternal embrace of the Triune God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Prayerfully and with sympathy in Christ, Our Lady, St. Joseph and St. Norbert, The Norbertine Canonesses of the Bethlehem Priory of St. Joseph

“ Donna, George and Anthony, my very deepest condolences to you and your extended family in the loss of dear, sweet Emma. Thank you for sharing her with all of us through her journey with this terrible illness. We continue to hold you close in prayer as you face the difficult days ahead. There are no words that can begin to help to ease your pain but I would like to share the poem below.

*I'll lend you for a little while a child of mine, God said,
For you to love the while she lives, and mourn for when she's dead.
It may be six or seven years, or forty two or three,
But will you, 'til I call her back, take care of her for me?
She'll bring her charms to gladden you. And should her stay be brief,
You'll always have your memories as solace in your grief.
I cannot promise she will stay, since all from earth return,
But there are lessons taught below I want this child to learn.
I've looked this whole world over in my search for teachers true,
And from the folk that crowd life's lane, I have chosen you.
Now will you give her all your love and not think the labour vain,
Nor hate me when I come to take this lent child back again.
I fancy that I heard them say, 'Dear God Thy will be done',
For all the joys this child will bring, the risk of grief we'll run.
We will shelter her with tenderness, we'll love her while we may,
And for all the happiness we've ever known, we'll ever grateful stay.
But should the angels call her much sooner than we'd planned,
We will brace the bitter grief that comes and try to understand.
~ Edgar Albert Guest*

“Emma, my Chocolate Princess, I will cherish our fun times and play-dates for my entire life. From the times you would run upstairs to my room and try on my bracelets, to playing Disney Princess Legos with each other, to singing “It’s a Small World” together, to the many times we made art—coloring, painting, stickering, you name it! I am grateful to have had so many special moments with you.

You are loved by so many people. Your Mommy and Daddy did absolutely everything they could to keep you with us longer, and if it weren’t for them, your loving Brother Bear, and the relentless fighter you have always been, I may not have been able to share as many memories as I did with you. For that, I am thankful.

I would do anything to have you back just so I could say, “Hey Cutie” and tell you how pretty you are and how you are the cutest princess in all the land. The last day I had with you I made you giggle and talked about some of my favorite memories with you, and I am so happy we were able to bond like usual just a day before the angels gave you your wings.

I’ll make sure we keep Donkey safe for you, and you make sure to watch over all the other DIPG kids out there and keep reminding them to fight hard like you did.

*I love you so much, now and forever.
Love, your Kitty-Loving, Big Cousin, Toad*

“ My heartfelt condolence as you struggle through this difficult time. I feel so blessed to have known this beautiful little girl. I remember falling in love with her the first time I met her. She was so full of energy, excitement and love. She crawled up beside me with her little book. She was not in the least bit shy. I remember leaving the house that night thinking how special she was. There are no words to express how sad I feel for Donna, George, Anthony and the entire family. I pray that your faith helps to guide you. We will miss you Emma and the candle will continue to shine bright for you.
When I look up and see the stars I will think of you and your beautiful bright smile and remember how your short time here touched so many of us. I love you little one watch over your family.

What a gift she shared with many people. For so long I prayed and looked daily to see her many pictures, trips, and all her daily life. I grew to love her and capture her on my time line. I talked about her to all my friends. They said prayers to. I feel a great void, and will miss her. I am so glad Jennifer had me be part of my life. “ Emma,

We are so blessed to have been able to share moments with you that we will forever cherish. Lucas and Noah are very blessed boys to have you as a friend they will always remember. They promise to forever take care of your brother and be there for him in moments when he misses you the most.

Thank you for teaching to us to always fight hard and be strong and most importantly to never ever give up.

Soar through clouds like the angel that you always have been.

With all of our love,

Kenny, Carolina, Lucas and Noah Prince

“ We love and miss you so much Princess. I know you are flying high and dancing like you should be. You are our Guardian Angel. Thank you for being the best Best Friend to Paisley. She told me this morning that no one will ever take your place. She misses you more than words. I know you will be watching over your mom, dad and Anthony. Love you! “ We are so sorry. Emma was such a brave and beautiful girl. We are so glad that we got a chance to meet Emma and your family on Maddie's Make-A-Wish trip to Orlando. Emma, Maddie, and too many other DIPG kids are now together once again. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Donna there are no words to express the sadness I feel in my heart for you and your family . Emma was so blessed to have a mom who love her the way you did . I suppose God new he had to put Emma in the arms of a very special mom . Both you and Emma touched my heart in so many ways . I pray that God will continue to give you all the strength to heal from your loss . Your little princess Emma will live in my heart as she did when she was here . Sending much love and healing prayers to all of you . God Bless you Connie Smith . 💖💖
