“ Paul...Just an incredible person. I met Paul in 1999 I was renting a room from a lady in the Buckhead area of Atlanta. Paul would stay at our place and some of the guys he knew from traveling the coast would come over for fish fry and Frosty would cook fish up. Then it was off to the dive bars where ever blues music was playing. I was bartending in Buckhead at the time. I will never forget you Wheels. You were so fun and just a joy to be around and so kind. Thank you for sharing your time with me. I hope your family remembers all the laughter I remember you for. I hope to laugh over your story's on the other side my friend. Godspeed

“ For forty plus years I was fortunate to count Wheels as a true friend. He forever had a big grin on his face and a sparkle in his eyes. Hearty laughter was a part of his personality. Wheels and I traveled the same territory for thirty years as reps in the apparel industry. We had many great times and wonderful adventures together. I will miss you Brother, very much, every day as will all who knew you.
