

Esther Mary Ailiff

November 2, 2015

Esther Mary Ailiff, passed away Monday, Nov 2, 2015 at her residence. She was born in Philadelphia, Pa and was a retired seamstress. She was a member of the Barnsboro Baptist Church and the National Park Baptist Church, both in New Jersey. She was a Sunday school teacher for many years, and also enjoyed sewing, crocheting, reading and crosswords. She was pre-deceased by two sons Paul R. Scott and Fred L Ailiff .She is survived by daughters; Naomi Vogel, Cynthia Romano and Glenda Conaway, Karen Oudyk and a son , Bruce, 20 grandchildren, 36 great- grandchildren and 4 great great-grandchildren. Friends will be received Thursday, Nov 5 from 1-2pm followed by a funeral service to be conducted at 2:00 pm at the funeral home. Interment will be in New Jersey

Tribute Wall

“ The family of Esther Mary Ailiff uploaded a photo

August 19, 2019 at 12:00 AM

“ Cynthia Romano - Daughter posted a condolence Dear Mother, I have loved you for 68 years of my life. I will keep you in my heart forever so we will never be apart. I love you. Be safe and well in the arms of Jesus and love the family members who have gone on before you. Cynthia

Cynthia Romano - Daughter - November 04, 2015 at 12:00 AM