“ Mr. Lopez was a great father and catechist. I have fond memories of him teaching Vincent's PREP class. His faith was strong and he loved sharing it with the students. My condolences to his family.

“ One of my favorite memories of Tio Eugene, was seeing this tall, white guy sitting in my grandparents house. I remember him looking at me, stern, extremely serious and stood up. Looking up at him, and him looking down on me, he extended his hand and said, "hey Junior, Im your Tio Eugene. Let me ask you something. What do you know about the World War 1?" lol He was the type of person who loved history, and always took that advantage to teach you something whether you want to or not. He always had jokes and stories, and lessons to impart. And I admired that about about Tio Eugene. I grew up wanting to be like Tio Eugene, to be able to impart knowledge and wisdom on everyone I encounter. I remember when he came over to my house for dinner, I had crammed as much history to make an impression and failed miserably. He had the upper hand lol. My real favorite, personal memory of him, when I went to visit in Florida as a child, encountering this scary looking dog. I remember him laughing when this huge dog stood up on my shoulders and was looking at me in the face! Turned out to be the sweetest Boxer and fell in love with that dog! My Tio Eugene surprised me that summer to my very first Baseball Game, watching the Marlins playing the against White Sox. We had awesome seats and I remember he lent me his super sized catchers glove, big enough to stick my arm in lol, and that game I caught a ball!! It was one of my greatest memories of him. I always respected and admired Tio Eugene for who he was. He loved his family, and was always proud of his kids, my cousins! Tio Eugene, I love you and will miss you.

“ I had the distinct pleasure of knowing Eugene. He was a great friend, a great cousin to my good friend Manny, and from what I hear, a great father. He was one of the brightest guys I knew. He could tell a little bit of anything you would bring up.

He was a great human being! REST IN PEACE Brother!

Eugene you will be greatly missed. You were like a second dad to my son Ian. Vincent and Ian used to get into mischief in Boy Scouts and we were always on watch to see the next great idea the boys would get. Rest in Peace my friend, We are still on watch on this side. We love you always!

Very sad to hear about the passing of my old friend from the Bronx. We go back about 40 years. Worked at NYT together and played football for The Last Stop. He was a good friend and I'm happy that I was able to get together with him and Rosalyn last November. Rest in Peace with God my friend.

His favorite show was Jeopardy and he knew most of the answers. Always wore socks and a belt. Always tucked his shirt in. Was very neat and orderly. Ate alligator once and told me it was the best chicken he ever had. Played 1st base on our bar league softball team. Played defensive end on our bar league flag football team. could discuss any subject with you. Huge vocabulary. very polite and respectful. Did my taxes once and I got audited ! I know he's telling god rite now how things can be better run :)
