“ Cloe Dance - friend posted a condolence Dearest friends and brothers and sisters in Christ.... My memories go quite a ways back while at Pasadena Baptist Church... Eva was indeed a prayer warrior who loved to pray for others.. She was unselfish and dedicated to her Lord, her church, family and friends; actually the world... My love and prayers are with you all.. Guess by now she has met up with Jim and they are remembering times of prayer and fellowship when we met together... As I recall she was a good cook too... See you all soon...what a reunion when we meet Jesus.. Praise the Lord...God bless you..
