

Florence Abiang Ehlert

March 28, 2025 - March 28, 2025

With hearts full of love and sorrow, we share the passing of our precious baby, Florence "Flossy" Abiang Ehlert, who graced the world with her presence for only a few precious moments on March 28, 2025. Though her time with us was brief, she lived a lifetime in our hearts.

Every day, she was surrounded by love—feeling the warmth of our hands as we cradled mommy’s belly, hearing the nursery rhymes, and dancing to her all-time favorite “All the Pretty Little Horses”, we sang just for her, and shared in the simple joys of life—especially when mommy enjoyed her favorite strawberries. Her tiny flutter kicks were our sweetest reminders that she was listening, playing, and growing, responding with joyful wiggles to daddy’s loving conversations. Our daily walks with Kuya Chowmein and Kuya Kona became a time of connection, where we dreamed of all the beautiful moments we would share together, and imagining the wonderful life ahead.

And then, she arrived—so perfect, so small, and so strong. In those precious minutes, she fought with all her might, her little heart beating as we held her close, kissed her soft cheeks, and poured a lifetime of love into every whispered word. She knew she was not alone. She knew she was loved. And in those fleeting moments, she gave us the greatest gift—herself. She will always be our daughter, our brave little fighter, and our forever angel. She became our symbol of hope.

Flossy is deeply loved and missed by her parents, Aira Bianca and Dylan James Ehlert; brothers, Chowmein and Kona; grandparents, Melissa Lemley, Gloria and Jesus Abiang, and all who had hoped to watch her grow. Though her life was short, their love will last a lifetime. A funeral will be held on April 14, 2025, at Holy Family Catholic Church - St. Petersburg, FL at 10:00am.

Rest peacefully, sweet Flossy. Please continue to watch over us as our guardian angel. You will always be in our hearts.
