“ Please accept my most sincere and heartfelt sympathy at this sad time. I visited Mrs. Bell so often with my late parents, Cloyde and Maxine VanSickle when I was a little boy. She was always so sweet and kind and I can remember her smile with such happiness.

“ I remember sleepovers with my dear childhood friend Dawnell at her home in Uniontown when we were children. Mrs. Bell was always so kind to me and to all of us. She always had a smile on her face and a gentle word to say. She is the epitome of motherhood and a blessing to all who knew her.

“ My mom, Esther Bell, always enjoyed her sister-in-law, my Aunt Frances. They spoke on the phone to keep in touch from Ohio. She was always happy talking to Aunt Frances. I enjoyed visiting with her when in town with my mom. Our deepest sympathy to you all. She will be remembered fondly. ❤️
