Frances Marie McGahan, 60 became an angel on July 3, 2023. Born November 12, 1962 in the Bronx NY a daughter of Surina and late William Charles McGahan.

Frances had the uncanny ability to brighten all lives she touched with her larger-than-life personality, huge heart, and a willingness to make sure everyone in her presence knew just how much she loved, admired, and appreciated them. Frances made it her mission to lift hearts and spirits of all who came in contact with her. You never had to wonder how she felt she wore her heart on her sleeve proudly and jubilantly. Because to her, life was meant to be celebrated, and those close to her knew just how much she loved them. Even strangers alike, it didn't matter where you came from, or who you were, Frances sought out only to cherish those around her. She will forever be deeply missed.

“ RIP my beautiful childhood friend, not a day goes by without a thought of you. I will so miss our chats, your fun messages (even at 2 or 3am), your great sense of humor and mostly YOU. If anyone had a HUGE heart of gold...it was YOU. The admiration you showed everyone was so deeply genuine and profound you have touched more hearts than you will ever know. Until we meet again <3

This was so shocking for me, I did not know that my dear friend was even ill. But it doesn't surprise me because Francis' heart was always going out to others. It wasn't about her, it was about her being there for friends. I will miss my sweet friend. My heart goes out to the family 😞
