“ Carol Holm - friend posted a condolence I've know you and Frank as long as time can remember. Not having him in my life just doesn't seem real and yes it hurts. Not seeing you two together will be even harder to grow into. I know we all wait and look forward to the day we can go home to Our Lord. As usual Frank was the lucky one and got to go first. But our joy is in the fact that we will all be together again in that wonderful final home. So instead of grieving I will be looking forward to that glorious day. And while I am still here I will continue to treasure you and love and be there for you in all things.

“ Linda & Lynn Richard - Friends posted a condolence Dear Carol and family, Our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of great sadness. Frank will be remembered fondly by us and countless others. We are confident that he is finally in the best of all retirement spots with no more pain and suffering. The picture you all chose for this memorial website is perfect. It speaks volumes about Frank Brown's good heart and character. That big smile was infectious for all of those who were lucky enough to have known him! Our prayer today is that God continues to wrap you all in the comfort and light of His love while you work through this difficult period. Linda & Lynn Richard “ Diana Lynn - Niece posted a condolence I will miss Frank terribly so. I will miss our personal chats we had while walking along the beach or along the boardwalk. I will miss hearing all the stories mom tells me after chatting with you on Saturday mornings. I will miss your smiling and teasing when I see you. I will miss our visits with you and Carol. You both have always treated Warren and I like royalty and we always appreciated it. I will miss drinking with you and Carol (5:00 Happy Hour) out on your balcony. I will miss all the fun we had wining and dining at some really nice restaurants. I will miss trying to beat you at rumicube. I pray that I will really see you again some day.

“ Ben and Dixie Phillips - Friends posted a condolence Ben and I were so pleased to meet you and Frank through our close friends, Will and Carol Holm, when Ben retired. We always enjoyed playing cards and going out to dinner as a group. Since we live in Bloomington, Illinois, we could not get together as often as we would have liked. Frank was an intelligent man who was enjoyable to spend time with. Our thought and prayers are with you.

“ Rick And Barb Sucher - Friends posted a condolence Frank will be dearly missed. I have known him for 28 years and my wife Barb for most of her life. He has been a blessing to us in so many ways...from Dinners at Golden Phone to Sung He, to his visit to us in the DR...to so many family get togethers. We know he is in a better place...sitting with the Father in heaven.

“ Theodore A. (TAD) Dawson - Close friend for 53 yrs. posted a condolence I just received and read the message of Frank's passing and I have a very very sad heart. He has been one of my dearest and closest friends throughout the years since we were in the Army together in Munich, Germany in 1958-1960. We have maintained some of our same and dearest of friends throughout these years, to this day. While in Germany, we took a 2 week vacation with 2 other GI friends by car through northern Germany ending in Copenhagen, Denmark, for an unforgettable vacation. We all bonded as best friends throughout those years. Frank is just one month older than I am, his bday is Oct 26 and mine is Nov. 21 and we used to kid each other that he was my big brother. He told me often that he was so fortunate to have met and married his wife, Carol, and that he was blessed for having done so. He described to me his travels with Carol since his retirement and how much he enjoyed his time with her. I am now at a loss for words. I shall miss him tremendously!!!! GOD BLESS YOU FRANK AND ALSO YOU CAROL. We will all have our day but it is hard to believe that Frank has had his at such a young age when he has been keeping himself so fit. I'm very sad tonight !!!!!

“ Marlene Dorsten - friend posted a condolence Dear Carol (and family), Please accept our sincere condolences on the passing of Frank. I know how much the two of you did together, Carol. I am certain you will never think of Rummy Q the same. I did not know him (except through your stories, Carol) but he seemed to be a loving and caring man. I do know he had a loving heart and thought about others on the holidays. You did sing his praises for the care he gave to your mother. May he rest in peace and may his family find comfort in one another. Hugs, Marlene

“ Don Craig - friend posted a condolence Carol, Annette and I have been and are continuing to think about you during these difficult times. Frank's illness and death came as a true surprise. The fact that he did not have to linger any longer in his situation is a blessing although the departure of a loved one is always a real loss. May God hold you in his hand and guide you during these times. Don and Annette Craig
