

Fred K Thomas

January 13, 2010

THOMAS, Frederick K., was born December 4, 1931, in Ontario, Canada and passed away on January 13th, 2010. He was a 50 year resident of St. Petersburg and a member of the Holy Family Catholic Church. He loved life, especially his family and friends. He is survived by his wife Doris (Theresa), of 20 years. He also had 4 children, Noel, Marie, Joanne and Michael. He loved his grandchildren, Michael, Christopher and Paul and many extended family members and friends.

Fred moved his new family to St. Petersburg in 1959. He was a great salesman and became a successful advertising executive. He raised 4 children and later opened his own business, The Hobby House, which he operated until his retirement in 1995. In his retirement he loved nature, enjoyed working with his computer, playing with his dogs, the occasional poker game with friends at Derby Lane, and great conversations and jokes with anyone he met. He will be missed by everyone who knew him.

Friends will be received at the funeral home on Sunday, January 17th from 4-5 P.M. A funeral mass will be conducted on Monday, January 18th at 11:00 A.M at Holy Family Catholic Church located at 200 78th Ave. NE. The family requests that, in lieu of flowers, donations be made to Hospice Florida Suncoast.

“ E. B. Anderson, Jr. - Friend posted a condolence Fred was a dear friend and we will miss him greatly. He is in heaven, probably enjoying the company of my father, Ernest Sr., like they did so many afternoons for a happy hour in St. Pete. I will always have a special place in my heart for my friend, Fred Thomas and the great relationship he had with my father. Take care and God Bless!
