“ To my favorite neighbor "Mr. Ignots" while growing up,

*I am here to celebrate your life.
And the measure of its worth.
And every single life you touched.
While you were on this earth.
I wish to pay my last respects.
To thank you for your friendship.
And all the memories I hold dear.
Its been a privilege to have known you.
We were family not just friends.
And I will carry you in spirit.
Until we meet up once again.*

Prayers and thoughts go out to all of you!

“ Dear Aunt Mary and family,

May your memories help all of you during this difficult time. The fact that both of you, Aunt Mary and Uncle Red are my Godparent's mean so much more to me. Therefore, even more memories with my birthdays and other events. Then, as our families grew I was so happy to make more memories with all of you with Bill and my Cindy. Memories of visiting you in Chicago and Winter Park and when you would return to Cleveland for visits. We were very lucky to be able to exchange emails for many years with Uncle Red. I asked him for advice on many things. He would do the research of what cars to buy, appliances, etc.... He was more of a Dad to me, then my own father due to him being out of my life at a early age. Uncle Red will be missed my many, but not forgotten and he is at peace now.

Our thoughts, prayers and love go out to all of you.
