“ My deepest heartfelt condolences to the entire family. I pray God will comfort and strengthen all of us . Uncle Ramdeo was a man of integrity honor and displayed such love and affection to all. Such an individual of stature yet humble. He called me his daughter and I loved and cherished him as a father. May God rest his soul in peace.. Ahailiah

Just another day I was trying to get you two out of the house. Little did I know what was to come. We did the ups and downs of life together. I will greatly miss you, my mentor and best bud. With you, you take a piece of my heart, but I will carry on well with the memories, wisdom, quick witted laughs, and love you gave me. As I wrote when I captioned this photo two years ago, I owe you and Ema everything. Rest well.

My deepest condolences to the Mulchan family. Gary and his dear wife, Shahm were the first people to warmly greet me when I attended my first meeting at the Orlando Sai Baba Center, and they have remained very dear to me. I will remember Gary most for the the wisdom he shared at the study circles and will always be grateful to him for the guidance and help he offered me when I was serving as an officer. May Swami always bless you, Gary, and keep you in his loving care.
