“ I didn't know Scott long, but he wormed his way into my heart. He was a quintessential storyteller for whom a yarn about an Oreo was a lifelong lesson about sharing, and a story of sorting watermelons became a parable of respect given, returned, and given back again. He might have disagreed, but I found him to be a poet too, in the way he spoke of the moon rising over the lake, in the way, when he recommended a song (which he did regularly), he would always urge, “now, listen to the lyrics.” As he would say at the end of our phone calls, “bye, baby, bye.”

“ So sad to learn of Scott's passing. During the few times I was able to spend time with him,

He was so outgoing and friendly. I am sorry I never got to know him better. He obviously will suffer with ill health no longer. May he rest in Eternal Peace.

My heart aches over the loss of Scott. On my visits to Florida from Charlotte, I always looked forward to seeing him. He was always lively, and I mean lively, and upbeat. I know Brenda has been a huge comfort for him especially with his ill health and he loved her very much. Thank u, Brenda. I wish I could be there to help you during this trying time.

*Scott was kind and generous. When the Florida fires broke out, he hooked up his trailer, filled it with food and drove an hour to the sites to feed the firemen. That's just one incident but there were many. He was a good man and loved his family. I'm so sorry we have lost Scott. May he Rest In Peace.

Wow....I just found out that Scott has passed on to his best ever "huntin stand" in the sky. What a loss to those of us that remain down here. He was certainly a "character" and liked to travel the roads less traveled.....probably why we got along so well. And we met 25-30 years or so ago....how else....over a gun! Life is just not always fair....Damn he is gonna be missed. RIP my brother.
