

Giacomo Castello (Mino)

Giacomo Castello (Mino), has been the beloved husband of Theresa for 37 years, a loving father to Gabriella, and Nonno to Umberto Costa. Mino was born in Camogli, Italy, and was the youngest of six children. He is preceded in death by his parents Giovanni Castello and Francesca Miori, as well as his five siblings. He is survived by nephews, nieces, and other relatives and friends.

Mino had a lifelong career as a dedicated refrigeration engineer with the following passenger cruise lines: Linea "C"- Costa Line 25 years and Carnival cruise lines for 25 years. He was an avid tennis player, and he enjoyed watching Formula 1 racing as well a fan of Italian soccer series A, cheering on his favorite team Genova. Mino was also a member of "Sons of Italy."

Mino enjoyed his daily walks, and his smile will truly be missed. Ciao Amore Mio!

Tribute Wall

LK

“ Dear friend Mino, We all met through my Moms mail mistakenly delivered to your home, God does work in mysterious ways! Mino was a kind sweet soul who I always enjoyed visiting. God bless you and until we meet again in paradise my friend, you will be missed.
Xoxo

Linda J Petrilli Keene - July 29, 2018 at 09:47 AM

MR

“ Condoglianze e cari e affettuosi abbracci Olivari/Ranieri

Monica Ranieri - July 25, 2018 at 10:00 AM