I just found out about Gina today. Although I hadn't spoken to her in years, I will always remember that beautiful smile and great sense of humor. When her son passed, I wanted to reach out, but I felt like too much time had gone by. I truly regret that decision. My deepest sympathies for her mother, brother and grandson. She was a bright light that was extinguished much too early. Rest In Peace.

“ I'm absolutely stunned. We want to send money from the Canadian group in trust for her grandson. How incredibly sad. She was so full of life. What a loss.

“Gina, I don't know where to begin. Your life ended way too soon. After we spoke Tuesday and I could hear your heart break, I wanted to reach out and hug you. I reached out the next day to see how you were. It was unusual for you not to respond. I reached out Thursday. Then Friday. No response. And Friday night I got the news from Natacha. I didn't want to believe it. I am still waiting for my phone to ring, to hear you say "Hi Nat" like you always did. We talked recently about my visiting you this year. Now I will never get that opportunity. I miss you so much. I wish you were still here. Watch over Nate and all those who loved you! It's not goodbye, it's see you later.
