

Giulia DiDato

May 17, 1932 - June 21, 2017

Giulia passed peacefully from this life to be with the Lord on Wednesday June 21, 2017, joining Carlo, her husband of 56 years.

Born in Palena, a small town in the Abruzzo region of Italy, she was known by all who knew her for striking passion for life and for her unwavering love for her family.

Giulia is survived by her children, Giuseppe, Stella, Antoinette, and Vincent; her 5 grandchildren; and 6 great-grandchildren. A proud Italian woman, Giulia was quick to remind everyone that Dante, Michelangelo, and Leonardo da Vinci were all Italians and that the Italian language was the most romantic in the world. She believed that everyone, in some way, spoke a little Italian. All her friends and loved ones will miss her dearly.

“ I just loved your mom! I loved having her come to our Bunco nights and missed her when she didn't. Sometimes when I would see her outside walking I would go out and visit with her, usually walking her back home. We all miss her.

She gives the best hugs!
