“ Nana

*A Daughter and Sister.
A Wife and Mother to four.
A Grandmother to eight.
A Great Grandmother to three.
Glady's "Ricky" Ann Bilello*

*I always thought it was sweet
When you knew we were coming to visit you would get treats
You'd always offer a coffee or cake
Or a chicken cutlet which I would always choose to take
You were hospitable and kind
Never rushing through the time*

*You were witty and smart
And had an eye for gods creations presented in the world as art*

*I have the fondest memories
Some of them feel like dreams*

*The after-school walks we would take
Or the adventure we would embark on during my summer breaks*

*Binge watching monk or TLC
Or you telling me about the new novel you were reading
Road trips to the campsite
Or shopping sprees that just always felt right*

*You knew how to brighten my day
And always had the right words to say
You always welcomed me with the warmest hugs
You would shower in words of truth and love
There was never a time I felt you were made at me
Instead, every little thing I did you celebrated as a victory.*

*You knew exactly what you liked
And often made sure it was known if your meal didn't come out just right
But in the same breath, you welcome all you knew in
With a smile and a hug, they quickly became kin*

*The way you embraced each challenge head-on Never looking to change the time that had already gone
Instead to live each day you had rooted in God's good grace
And man did you run a good race.*

*You beat cancer twice before
Broke your hip that day you fell to the floor
But you were always strong we all knew that full well
And we knew there would be a time would have to say farewell
God gave us just the right amount of time
To say our I Love You's and Goodbyes*

Blessed to have been forever changed and loved by you
