

Glenda Carol Gingras

September 28, 1953 - September 25, 2013

Glenda Carol Gingras, age 59 of Winter Park, Florida passed away on Wednesday, September 25, 2013 in the comfort of her home. Glenda was born on September 28, 1953 in West Chester, Pennsylvania. She was survived by her four sons Chris Gipson, Daniel Gipson, Jason Gingras and Janssen Gingras and 9 grandchildren. She was also survived by her siblings Buzz McCombs and Tammy Ann Stephens.

Glenda was the epitomy of what selfless love was all about and this was reflected in the way she took care of her children, family and friends her whole life. She was an avid puzzle solver, movie watcher and loved to listen to music.

More importantly though, she loved having family and friends around. Holiday family gatherings, excursions to parks and the beach were some of the things she enjoyed the most. Her deep faith in Christ helped her carry the cross that she was handed, and she carried it well.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.

“ Jason, I'm so sorry to hear about the loss to your family. Having experienced this recently I know it's tough. I'll give you some advice I never got. Cry as much as you want. It hurts, you don't have to be strong for anyone.

Grieve in any way you need to, just know that friends and family are what will help you through, lean on them if you have to. I'll be praying for you.
