“ Glenn worked for me at Thom McAn Shoe store part time. We used to hang around and go drinking after work. He was always a fun guy and was liked by all. This was in the 70's and I haven't seen him in years and was just thinking about him and Googled his name and saw he has passed. Brings sadness to my heart as Glenn was always out going and a good worker and person. My condolences to his family.

“ Abby Lee lit a candle I've been Glenn and Lynn's next door neighbor for about 6 years now. Every day, I'd see Glenn outside gardening or in his garage working on his bikes. I feel like he was the glue of our neighborhood, always bringing people together with friendly conversation. In fact, I'm not sure that I'd know any other neighbors if it wasn't for Glenn. My dog, Nala's favorite place in the world was in the garage with Glenn. As soon as we rounded the corner on our walks and she saw the garage door open, she'd pull with all of her might to go see Glenn. I thought it was so cool that he still rode dirt bikes and raced on weekends, even in his 70s. I loved hearing Glenn's stories about St. Pete back in the day, and my husband (a sailor) loved talking to Glenn about boats. I miss him. And Lynn - I'm confident he's up in heaven, smiling down on you with an overpriced ice cream cone in his hand. Know that me and Jim are here for you if you need anything at all. Sending so much love your way.

“ *Joe Ruperto posted a condolence Glenn was the best neighbor anyone could ever have, We had many a laugh together and I always admired his work with cars and motorcycles. LOL but he never failed to have something I wanted to borrow. I'll never forget the acorns in the Huskie crankcase or pushing him down the street to get the thing started. He will be missed. “ Mark Saunders posted a condolence He was one of a kind as they say, they broke the mold after he was born. He was truly adventurous and a little wild but had a kind heart. He could build a house from the ground up or take an old car or motorcycle and restore it to new. I was proud that he overcame some early life struggles to build a good life for him with his loving wife Lynn. My memory is full of stories of my big brother “Butch.” You will be missed by many. Your brother, Mark.

“ Lora posted a condolence Uncle Butch as we fondly referred to him was always cheerful and witty and funny when we got to see him. My favorite memories is him taking me for a ride on one of his motorcycles when I was little. He was so happy I agreed to go for a ride and that I wasn't scared. May you be at peace with Grandma and your brother. You have a lot to catch up on ❤️ RIP

“ tinagaboury@hotmail.com posted a condolence My uncle Butch one of my earliest memories of you was you lifting me up and setting me inside your houseboat, I remember thinking how cool it was that you guys lived on a boat. You definitely were my cool uncle through the years you always did cool things, I remember rides in your Porsche and thinking how cool it was, you had a gift rebuilding those cars. Our family will miss you forever, say hi to grandma for me ❤️ I love you always your first niece Tina

“ Chantel Jackson lit a candle Glenn was my big brother, he had a passion for motorcycles as long as I can remember and he was damn good at it. He was the one who introduced me to my husband (Larry) and walked me down the isle to give me away. Butch was a smart man who was always there when I needed him. I was always proud to call him my brother, I am so glad I was there for him in his final days to help him. You will always be in my heart and I know that you are at peace with Mom, Dad and our brother Bill. Love you always.

“ Don Baham uploaded photo(s) Glenn was a good friend and I always enjoyed being around him at the motorcycle races. He loved racing and was always fast off the starting line. Years ago we competed in a hour long cross country endurance race. Glenn got his usual good start and was right behind me. Suddenly he disappeared, I came back around on the next lap and there was Glenn sitting under a tree smoking a cigar. I thought maybe he had crashed, but he said he was just enjoying nature and having fun watching the rest of us go by. I'll never forget his smile and laugh as we were all sweating up a storm!
I will miss you dearly my old friend! Ride on in paradise! You can show us the way when we get there with ya!

“ Chantel Jackson lit a candle As long as I can remember my brother has always raced motorcycles. Him and his brother Richard loved to gave me a lot of crap when I was little, Butch was the one who Introduced me to my husband and we've been married going on 26 years, he gave me away at my wedding as our father passed away. Butch was my big brother and always will be. I was glad I was there for him in his last days on earth. I hope he is at peace with our parents and our brother I'll. I will Love you forever!
