

Gloria C. Bozeman

July 1, 2018

Gloria C. Bozeman, passed away July 1, 2018. She was born in Miami, FL January 17, 1926. Gloria and her husband Bill Bozeman, Jr moved to St. Petersburg in 1955 and began Bill Bozeman Insurance Agency in 1958. She worked side by side with “the love of her life” and together they created a very successful business. Gloria, also known by family and friends as “GoGo”, had a second career (in the late 50's/early 60's) selling Tupperware. She won numerous awards and accolades statewide-she won 2 cars, but the family thought that the station wagon was the best! Her family and friends meant the world to her – she would regale the family for hours with wonderful “stories” and escapades. When she lived at Lake Seminole Square she organized a group called “the no see ums” for other folks with vision issues and macular degeneration like she had - the pun and play on words was catchy and the group had many fun times! Gloria was preceded in death by her husband, Williams O. Bozeman, Jr. She is survived by two sons, Williams O. Bozeman III (Sandy), Robert C. Bozeman (Vicki); 4 grandsons, Nathaniel Bozeman (Bethany), Kyle Bozeman, Jon Bozeman and George Caram IV; 5 great grandchildren, Aaron Bozeman, Sarah Bozeman, Savannah Bozeman, Marina Bozeman and Piper Bozeman. A private family service was held July 3, 2018 at the R. Lee Williams & Son Funeral Home. Those wishing to remember Gloria may make donations to the Pasadena Community Church or the Suncoast Hospice.
