

Gloria Linda Cardenas

April 28, 1945 - May 7, 2025

Gloria Linda Cardenas, age 80, passed away peacefully at home on May 7, 2025, in St.

Petersburg, Florida, surrounded by her beloved children. Born on April 28, 1945, in Lima, Peru.

Gloria moved to Florida in 1980, where she embraced a new life in a new country along with her children and mother. What she was most proud of was her family. She was kind, generous, and loved being a mother and grandmother.

She worked very hard and had many challenges. She attended college and was very proud of being independent and owning her own house. She enjoyed baking, especially making cakes.

She was deeply religious and was part of a rosary group at a local Catholic church. Her humor was rich with life experience and wit, cleverly laced with irony and wisdom, humor that can disarm with the sweetest smile and deliver truth with a twinkle in her beautiful eyes.

Gloria is survived by her loving daughter, Sandra Sharby and her husband

John; her son,
Jonathan Guevara; her cherished grandson, John S. Sharby and his fiancé
Victoria Ohlsson; her granddaughter Jessica Sharby; and her great grandson Victor. She also leaves behind her siblings, Amanda Gangl and Grace Guerrero. Gloria was preceded in death by her parents,
Fernando and Victoria (Bustamante) Cardenas, and her brothers, Fernando Cardenas and Cesar ' Tito' Cardenas. She is survived by many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
