“ I would like to express my condolences to the family on the passing of Ma Chuck. She was a great loving and friendly person. Her great kindness and compassion towards her friends and family shines thru her children. I do know that she was very highly respected member throughout the family. You all were truly fortunate to have had a woman such as your mother in your life, my children also send their thoughts and prayers to you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Brenda Cooper##imported-end##
