“ I met Gloria in the park with her pooch. A contingent of small dog owners would meet every Saturday at the Lake Baldwin dog park. Gloria was consistently, kind, funny and always willing to help. She had a generous heart, while she could always pull out a discount coupon when she went to lunch with my mom, a fellow New Yorker. My mom said they had fun going from thrift store to thrift store together. Sadly, I just lost touch with a lot of people after COVID and Gloria was one of them. I wish I had known of her passing sooner. She was a gem possessing a strength of character that was imbued in many of the folks of her generation, forged by hardships and incredible historical events, peppered with fortitude and laughter whose likes will not be seen again.

“ My beloved Cousin Gloria was always my closest cousin. Being a professional Musician and Entertainer myself, I helped Gloria get Into the business. She was a terrific singer and we often performed together. She was also a terrific cook, just like her favorite Aunt Irene (My mother). She had it all...

A family and a career. It was a life well lived. Her memory will live on through her three sons and her grandchildren.

Rest in peace my dearest

Cousin Gloria. Love, Cousin Terry
